A MARVELOUS GROWTH.

Ringling Bros'. Big Show Enlarged to Twice Last Year's Dimensions.

The startling announcement is made that Ringling Bros'. World's Greatest Shows, which exhibits in Mt. Sterling on Wednesday, April 27th, has been fully doubled in size since last season, so that it is now not only the biggest and best arena exhibition in America, but is also in every respect the most colossal enterprise of its kind ever organized. There are twice as many cars, twice as many elephants, twice as many people, twice as much seating capacity, twice as many rare wild animals, twice as many tents, twice the hippodrome space, and twice the number of surpassing arena features, while a princely fortune has been expended in all-new street parade, which for wealth of costuming, richness of coloring and novelty of feature has never been equaled. To organize this stupendous traveling exposition has involved an expenditure of $3,700,000, a sum equal, if not greater, than the combined invested capital in all other arena exhibitions combined, while the daily cost of operating and maintaining this greatest of shows averages over $7,400—an amount sufficient to equip a good-sized circus. No other show could exist with half its expense; no other show can compare with it in resources; no other show has a feature worthy to be presented in the same category as those classed with this mighty exhibition. Think of 25 elephants, ranging from the tiniest of baby elephants up to the largest elephant that ever trod the earth; think of 400 matchless, spirited, high-stepping horses; grandly caparisoned in cloth of gold and wiring plumes; think of a phalanx of over 1,000 people, among whom are hundreds of artists, especially imported from Europe for the sole purpose of amusing and instructing the discriminating American public; think of hundreds of rare wild animals, exhibited in the most beautifully carved and fantastically ornate golden cages ever constructed; think of a huge hippodrome amphitheatre, so enormous in its dimensions as to furnish seating capacity for the entire population of a good-sized county; think of a ground space devoted to arena displays alone large enough to cover a city block, and a racing course, all under canvas, full one-fourth of a mile in length. These are the salient characteristics of Ringling Bros'. truly marvellous exhibition, and even they can give but a faint idea of the massiveness, the striking beauty and imperial splendor of this superb enterprise.

A Phase of Eastern Life.

At a recent social meeting in New York, in a paper on "The Oriental Mother and Child," the writer said: "After the children of Turkey reach the age of 10 years the girls and boys are not allowed to attend the same schools. The boy goes along the road of life merrily, but the girl takes the veil and is retired to obscurity. The girl of Japan is fortunate in that she is not so totally obscured. In many eastern countries the boy is not only taught that he is vastly superior to his mother and sister, but is also trained to regard himself as the protector and supporter of the women folk. But all his love and support can do little to save his sister from the awful fate that the custom of early betrothal brings to her.

"It is true that in most of the Oriental countries the family ties are very strong. Is it not apt to be the other way in America? Filial love and obedience is drilled into the children and they are taught that they owe their first duties to their parents. It seems to me that this system might be adopted here. Are not American children lacking in respect for their elders? And is not the tendency of the times toward an increase of this evil? I think that American mothers might study with profit the filial obedience and family love of Oriental children."

Another writer on "The German Child," said that the boy had a marked advantage over the girl in German families. He is regarded as a welcome arrival, while a girl is not. The German idea of woman is that she is an inferior person, and she is taught to look upon herself in that way. In many of the best German homes, Mrs. Atwell said, the wife is simply regarded as an upper servant. She does not dare to hold an opinion opposed to her husband's. The Germans, she said, tolerate the literary article woman of other countries, but if one of their women did the same kind of things she would be regarded as hardly respectable.

Hay Thief Caught.

Having been bothered a good deal by hay thieves a Coddington county, S. D., farmer lay in wait for them one night. One of his neighbors came along and loaded a wagon with the washer's hay and started to drive away. The owner of the hay crept up behind the wagon and fired the hay in several places. The thief had just time to get off the load and cut his horse loose to escape the flames. The hay and the wagon were destroyed.

An Act Worth Recording.

It was one of the recent hottest days in mid-summer, the mercury up in the sixties, and people didn't stop to do things they were not obliged to do. A delivery team from one of our largest Worcester dry goods establishments came dashing down the street with a heavy load, already late in delivery. The driver spied a little brown bird in the middle of the road, and he immediately reined in his horse, jumped out, lifted it very tenderly and placed it on the seat, green lawn of the house he was passing, and then jumped on his team and drove on. The kind lady of the house picked it up and took it into the house, and made a nest for it in a waste basket, and refreshed it with milk and water. Little robin-red breast could not speak, but looked happy out of its great brown eyes. Then she boiled an egg and dropped little yellow morsels into its open mouth. That night and the next morning she nursed the little orphan. The children laughed at the funny tattle of down that stuck out of its feathers on each side and on top of its head, for in truth the little bird wasn't old enough to fly. She then left it in the basket on the lawn. The mother birds soon found their little one and came with worms to feed it. At 5 o'clock p. m., after hopping about on the lawn, the birding made its trial flight and nothing more was seen of it. We hope there are a great many just such kind-hearted drivers in Worcester and in the country who will do other such kind acts for those needing them.—Mrs. M. W. Weatherbee, of Worcester, Mass.

Editor Klopsch Called Down.

The editor of the Christian Herald went to Cuba. On his return he advocated the cause of Spain. He favors autonomy, and not independence, and thinks that for the United States to go to war with Spain would be the greatest crime of the century. In the Sun of New York, R. M. Evans, after showing that the editor is a foreigner and not thoroughly in sympathy with American ideas and principles, proceeds to say: "The American heart beats strongly in sympathy for the oppressed of whatever nationality or race, and it will take more than the statements of publisher of the Christian Herald to stifle the feelings of manhood of American citizens. It was no ill will toward Spain that prompted us to send food and clothing to the destitute in Cuba. Did not the American people contribute liberally of food and clothing to the people of Russia, India and Armenia when in reduced circumstances? Ship loads of provisions were sent by this country to all of those people, and the givers were thanked by the sovereigns of those countries for such generous benefactions. But it does not please the Don. It interferes with their devilish designs to starve the poor peasants and then sweep out of existence hundreds of thousands of innocent human beings.

"The Cuban patriots are of the same Celtic and Phoenician origin as the Spanish, but the difference is that they are natives of the Western Hemisphere. They have imbibed freedom from the air they breathe, from the example of States and nations of the continents to the west and north of them.

"Spain has fully demonstrated to every intelligent nation her incapacity for governing the island of Cuba. She must be made to let go her grip. There is no reason why the Cubans may not govern their own country as successfully as the Mexicans govern Mexico, or the inhabitants of the several South American States their respective countries.

"In our dealing with the Spaniards it must not be forgotten that the Spanish murder of 268 Americans in Havana harbor on the night of the 15th of last February is still unpunished. That murder was committed on the vessel of a friendly nation while on a peaceful mission. It was committed in the night, when the seamen were asleep. Obviously Spanish officials were the directors and abettors of the crime. Has Spain ever made any effort to discover these criminals and bring them to justice?

"If the Government at Madrid is not directly implicated in this terrible crime, then why does she not seek out and bring to merited punishment the perpetrators of this foul murder? It was in the power of the Spanish Government to have arrested the criminals within a few hours of its commission. The inference is clear that the Spanish officers had knowledge of the crime, premeditated it, and planned it. Every member of the Naval Board of Inquiry was conversant with this fact long before the session was closed, but for obvious political reasons it did not embody this convincing conclusion in its report.

"Yet with a mantle of charity this Dr. Louis Klopsch, publisher of the Christian Herald of New York, would have the United States play into the hands of the Spaniards, assist in crushing the liberty-loving, freedom-loving Cubans, and give countenance to the murder of 268 American seamen. No, no, Dr. Klopsch, you do not understand American character.

R. M. EVANS."

BOURBON NEWS.

The recent high water in Storck greatly damaged the dam of the Coulthard mill near Paris, which was built in 1785.

Hon. Claude M. Thomas has been appointed receiver of the Woodford estate by Judge Cantrill at Paris. The motion for a new trial had been overruled. The case will be taken to the Court of Appeals.

Twelve colored men were sent to the Kentucky penitentiary at the recent term of the Bourbon Circuit Court. The offenses were house-breaking, stealing and cutting. Five officers escorted them.

The historic Bourbon county Fair grounds, the scene of so many pleasant associations for love a century, have been sold at auction for $6,089. Tobacco will be raised on a part of it, but all will soon be on the market as town lots.

About 600 cattle were on the market last court-day. Sam Bedford bought 60 long yearlings from Simon Weil at $35.01 each. Mules brought $80 to $110. Ten thoroughbred horses 2 to 8 years old sold from $6 to $26 each.

A movement is now on foot to organize a military company at Paris. The present Cuban agitation is not the inspiring cause of such an agitation. This proposed company is to succeed the one recently mustered out at Orleans, and will form a part of the First Battalion of the Second regiment. Other towns have made application.

A little boy asked for a bottle of "get up in the morning as fast as you can," the druggist recognized a household name for Dr. Williams' Little Early Riser and gave him a bottle of those famous little pills for constipation, sick headache, liver and stomach troubles.

In the Circuit Court at Lexington, S. Harris was on Thursday acquitted for killing Thos. H. Merritt in Gratz Park last summer. The jury was out twenty-four hours.

Heavy Snow.

On Tuesday morning many of our people were surprised to see a heavy snow had fallen during the night. It was about four inches deep, and according to reports largely finished the killing of fruit, which had been much injured by the severe cold of preceding nights. From reports throughout the country, we conclude that nearly all peaches, cherries and plums and some early apples are destroyed. But little damage has been done to clover and oats. Tobacco plants have not suffered as much as was expected.

Circuit Court in Session.

Circuit Court convened on yesterday with Judge Cooper presiding. Only the usual instruction of the grand jury and receiving reports from the various officers occupied attention for the morning.

The following is the docket: Equity cases, 24; common law, 8; criminal, 20; misdemeanors, 45.

The most important civil case is that in regard to the will of Walter Chensault. There are no important criminal cases.

The following are the grand jurors: C. W. McKibben, foreman; J. W. Chensault, Noah Boone, Nick Haden, Sr., J. T. Highland, Albert B. Anderson, John McPherson, Chas. Fraser, Brock Gilliland, James M. Gillispie, D. C. Tipton, Jas. A. Martin.

Horse Market Improving.

Capt. Jack Stewart, the great auctioneer, on last Thursday finished a three days' horse sale at Martinsboro, Tenn. Two hundred and fifty horses passed under the hammer at an average of $125. The prices ranged from $40 to $300. No pedigrees were furnished. The horses had been catalogued.

There were thirty buyers from the South, one from Boston, one from Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. Stewart says that these horses sold for the best prices, for a cheap lot, in several years. He thinks that there has been a marked improvement in all kinds of live stock and thinks the prospect is very favorable. This stock had received but little attention and was such as would be usually taken of the pastures.

Farmers and stockmen will be pleased to hear of this improvement in the market, as for some years the prices have been very discouraging. Horse men have consequently given less attention to keeping up pedigrees and having stock in first-class condition. We are pleased when the farmers are successful.

BURGLAR

Entered the Residence of R. M.

Barnes, Sr.

Several Articles and Small Sum of Money Taken—A Joke on

Mr. Barnes.

Soon after 2 o'clock Monday morning Mr. Barnes was awakened by the appearance of a light in his room. As his wife had been nursing her sick sister, Mrs. Couch, in another room, he supposed that she had come into the family room for something and did not look to see if the person was she.

The intruder went to the bureau and began his work. The shining light was disagreeable to Mr. Barnes, so he turned in bed with his back to the light and said nothing. The burglar made a search of different drawers in the bureau. Mr. Barnes heard a very movement, but, strange as it appears, asked no questions nor looked towards the intruder. Operations continued thus for probably ten to fifteen minutes, then the seeker for treasure proceeded to the hall.

The two sisters heard the noise, but supposed that Mr. Barnes was up. Finally Mrs. Barnes concluded to make investigation. She went to the family room and asked her husband if he was sick. He assured her that he had not been out of bed. Then the question was, who had been going through the house? The conclusion was soon reached that the house had been robbed. An examination showed that Mrs. Barnes' watch case had been opened and her gold watch, which she had since she was six years old (a gift from a kinswoman), taken, the case closed and put back in the drawer; her pocketbook opened, the money, about $2, removed and the book closed and left in the drawer; other things were left in more or less disorder.

It is supposed that as the burglar left the room he heard the sisters talking, and just as Mrs. Barnes appeared in the hall he had disappeared through the front door. The entrance was evidently through the back door, as it was found unlocked.

Mr. Barnes regarded his own action as a joke on himself. Suspicion rested on Wm. Alexander, a young man of this city, who left on the early train. Officers in Lexington were notified and he was arrested in Lexington with the watch while trying to dispose of it.

Thin Blood

Where the blood loses its intense red—grows thin and watery, as in anemia, there is a constant feeling of exhaustion, a lack of energy—vitality and the spirits depressed.

Scott's Emulsion

of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda is peculiarly adapted to correct this condition. The cod-liver oil, emulsified to an exquisite fineness, enters the blood directly and feeds its every corpuscle, restoring the natural color and giving vitality to the whole system. The hypophosphites reach the brain and nerve centers and add their strengthening and beneficial effect. If the roses have left your cheeks, if you are growing thin and exhausted from over-work, or if you are beginning to feel, use SCOTT'S Emulsion.

Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. It is the only one. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York.

CORRESPONDENCE.

HAZEL GREEN.

The sick of our town are all convalescing.

Most of our fruit, except apples, was destroyed during the last cold snap, and there are but few tobacco plants living.

The extension on the railroad from Jackson to the Caney coal fields of Morgan county, where an eastern company owns 6,000 acres of the finest canal coal in the world, is now regarded as a certainty. The road has been permanently located and the right of way secured except about two miles. It runs within five miles of our town and passes through a timbered region on Frozen and Red river that is unequaled by any in Kentucky.

The Hazel Green Academy, one of the best institutions of learning in the State, is in a more prosperous condition than at any time during its history. Mr. W. H. Cord, the principal, is one of the best educators in the State, and is the right man in the right place. He keeps the dormitory, where students can be accommodated with board at $2.00 per week, and the fare and accommodations are first-class in every particular. He is also pastor of our Christian church, where only a few weeks since he closed one of the most successful revivals in the history of the church.

We are glad to learn that W. O. Mize, the well known capitalist of our town, will not occupy his residence on the corner of Main and Queen streets of your city, and the house is rented. But this should be a matter of regret upon the part of the citizens of your town, as he as well as his estimable wife are great workers in the church of which they are members and they would have been quite an acquisition to your population.

The people here would like to know what kind of laws and ordinances you have in operation in your town. It is reported here that Mr. Mize, preparatory to making valuable improvements to his dwelling house in your town, and upon which he has expended several hundred dollars, found it necessary to remove a little old dilapidated wood house from near the street in front of the house to the rear near the middle of the lot, for which his agent was fined in the Police Court $5.00 with costs. Says Mr. Mize: "If they fine me (being a non-resident) $5.00 for removing my own house upon my own land, especially when by so doing it adds so much to the attractiveness and general appearance of that part of the town, besides adding much to the value of all the adjacent property, what could I expect, should I become a citizen of the town? I shall therefore remain at Hazel Green." Will you please inform your readers if this report is true? Many of our citizens do not believe it. If true, it seems that the law ought to be changed so that your city officials, in the discharge of their duties, could execute the laws in a manner consistent with their oath as to invite capitalists to your town, instead of driving them away, as has been done in many instances heretofore.

[Mr. Mize's agent was fined for failing to get a special permit from the City Council to remove the house.—EDITOR.]

Proceedings of Fiscal Court.

The Fiscal Court was in session on Tuesday and Wednesday. Among the many matters considered we note the following:

Dr. Sam Thomas was elected Jail Physician.

The salaries of County Judge, County Attorney and School Superintendent were fixed at $1,000 for former, and $500 for each of the others.

An allowance of $50 a year was made to J. W. Jones for keeping clock at Court-house in repair.

Physicians for county paupers allowed 50 cents per mile.

The following levy for taxes was agreed upon: Turnpikes 25c, county 25c, railroad 8c, Court-house bonds 94c; total 67 1/2c. This added to State tax, 52 1/2c, makes a total of $1.20. The increase from 10 last year to 94c for Court-house is to pay the $6,000 which will be due next January. The turnpikes will be partially provided for by the remaining increase over last year's levy.

A purchasing agent for county supplies will be appointed. Adjourned till Monday.

The Postal Telegraph company were granted the right to erect poles on Levee pike.

C. H. Duty, County Road Supervisor, filed his report and allowed $100 for his services.

Committee appointed to have claim list published. Nothing ordered purchased for Court House and Jail except an order of respective committees.

Committee appointed to employ janitor for Court House.

Office of Road Supervisor discontinued and Justice of respective districts to have charge of roads in their respective districts.

NAT WILSON

Scores Another Victory in the Ring.

Mert Ryan Could Not Stand the Pace

LONGER THAN TWO ROUNDS.

The glove contest at the Masonic Temple on last Thursday evening between Nat Wilson and Mert Ryan, was of short duration, the former winning in the second round. Ryan was clearly out-classed, never once landing an effective blow on his opponent. He was knocked down once in the first round by a swing on the jaw, which seemed to somewhat discourage him, or to bring "the yellow" to the surface.

In the second round Wilson made into the now going soft thing with right and left swings which several times sent him to the floor, and which made him give up the fight. That he possesses a long yellow streak is evident from the fact that he tried to elude the contest on an alleged foul, which the referee and those near by failed to see. The referee and spectators tried every means of persuasion to get him to continue the contest but to no avail. Referee Warren Stover then declared Wilson the winner.

The preliminary bout of five rounds between Charles Vivian and a somewhat lighter-complected opponent, was a red-hot go and afforded much amusement for those present. It was an even match, and the referee declared it a draw.

RELIGIOUS.

A Sunday-school has been organized at Wyoming, Bath county.
Revs. W. T. Tibbs and A. P. Finley preached at the Christian Church on Sunday.
Regular service at the Northern Presbyterian church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.
Rev. T. S. Tinsley, of Owingsville was announced to preach on the Cuban war question on last Sunday night.
Mr. I. D. Youm will start a singing class at Carmargo on Saturday night. He starts with a good class. Let every body turn out, join the class and learn how to sing.
Rev. A. J. Arrick is at Toleboro this week attending the meeting of Ebenezer Presbytery. This church at that place celebrates its one hundred anniversary next Thursday with appropriate addresses.
A large congregation gathered at the first Presbyterian church Sunday night to join with the children in their Easter service, which consisted of songs and recitation. The children acquitted themselves with great credit both to themselves and those who have charge of them. Mrs. Arrick and her able assistants deserve much commendation for their painstaking care which manifested itself in the excellent service.
The programme is completed for the Kentucky Christian Misionary Convention, and I am safe in saying that we never had a better one. Those who have been asked to participate have accepted their respective duties, and I can predict safely that those who go to Mt. Sterling in June will have a feast of fat things to enjoy. The Mt. Sterling church will be ready for us and will entertain us in true Kentucky style, and that means hospitality spiced with large letters. Our report from the field will not be such as to cause us to feel ashamed. It is really wonderful that we have accomplished so much with so little upon which to operate.—H. W. Elliott, in Christian Guide.

Rev. J. W. Mitchell returned from Carlisle Saturday where he has been preaching in a protracted meeting for the two weeks. The meeting abounded with interest. Thirty-three persons testified from the altar that they were happily converted. This is old time testimony. Mr. Mitchell returned to Carlisle yesterday and the meeting will be continued this week.

There is some proselyting going on in religious circles, and we rather approve it on the ground that it puts all religious people on guard, to thinking and reasoning. We could criticize only secret proselyting. The Bible students should be willing and court public discussion, for the truth, the Christian doctrine is able to stand.

THE SICK.

We are pleased to note that Miss Ella E. Prewitt is improving nicely. Jallier Wm. Sled, who has been sick for two weeks, is still confined to his bed, but is some better at this writing.
The accident to J. G. Trimble, Sr. did not result as seriously as was feared. He was able to be up town on Friday and now expects no further trouble.

Kennedy & Dnerson.

The above is the name of a new drug firm which will begin business in the McMan building on Court St. in this city within ten days. The members of the firm are Mr. James Kennedy now a druggist of Paris, and Mr. Frank Dnerson of this city. Mr. Dnerson has bought a half interest in Mr. Kennedy's business at Paris which will be transferred here. This exchange will necessitate the removal of Mr. Kennedy and family. Their many friends will welcome their return. Each of these gentlemen has had years of experience in the business, and they will no doubt command a good trade from the beginning. We welcome the new firm and wish them success.

DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEP'SIN CURES INDIGESTION.

A New Telegraph Office.
The Postal Telegraph Co. have decided to run a line into Mt. Sterling within the next ten days. This is an enterprise which will be of worth to our people and we have no doubt that it will be equally valuable to the projectors.

Remember,

That Friday night, the 15th, at Somerset church, President Cava lectures on "Robert E. Lee." Everybody is invited to be present. The old soldier will be made to forget his gray hairs and live again in his youth. He will listen with rapture to the stirring scenes, similar to which he himself passed.

Our young men who are now patiently standing around the altar of our country's service ought to hear in this lecture the sentiment expressed by the great hero in his refusal of the Northern proposition, and his acceptance of that of his own State. There is something good for all.

The enterprising firm of Owen Laughlin & Son, besides supplying home trade, has recently sent four sets of harness to customers in Paris, Lexington, Frankfort and Huntington.

At two recitals of the Old Maid's Convention at Owingsville, by home talent, the ladies cleared $73.

I take this method of expressing my gratitude to the good people of Frenchburg and vicinity for their kind attention given to my dear husband in his last sickness. Time will never change me in my feelings for their kindness. Every thing that could be was done.

Wash Fabrics

That fairly whisper thoughts of warm days of Summer. Delicate tinted fabrics greet the eye on every side. French, German, English, Scotch, and our own American makes are blended into one bewildering show. Organ-dies join hands with filmy, airy batistes, linen novel ties with dainty dimities, and Scotch zephyrs take their place in the exhibit by the rich foulards of the world's best printers.

Dress Goods for Spring.

If the largest variety to select from at lowest possible prices will win your trade, we are bound to call your Spring Costume. This week's show consists in part of BAYADES, GRENADINES, ETAMINES, FRENCH CHALIS, CREPONS, FRENCH BROAD CLOTHS, COVERT CLOTHS, etc., etc.

Lining Department.

We keep good strong linings—the kind that do not pull and stretch, not trash. If you have good goods never use inferior linings. We keep the best.

Carpets.

NO SMALL-POX.

Commendation to Whom it is Due.

The Case a Suspicious One.

Prompt Action of Dr. W. R. Thompson, Health Officer.

Dr. C. B. Duerson, City Physician, and City Council.

On last Friday morning great anxiety and uneasiness prevailed on account of a sick negro with a skin eruption and symptoms closely resembling that of small-pox. The negro was John Owens, driver for Dr. W. R. Thompson. He had been at his morning work, had been in close proximity with others of his race and the suspicion consequently led to great uneasiness.

Dr. Thompson had the negro examined at once by other physicians and upon their decision, Drs. Thompson and Duerson advised the Council, which at once placed the patient and eighteen others with whom he had been rooming in an isolated building under guard with positive instructions against ingress and egress unless by permission of County Health Officer, Dr. W. R. Thompson, or City Physician, C. B. Duerson. Every precaution to prevent its spread was made, and had the disease proven to be small-pox it would have been more easily controlled than under other circumstances.

On Saturday morning, following the suspicious indications, Dr. B. W. Smock, State Inspector of Board of Health, was here and assisted by Dr. Thompson, the negro patient was stripped and after a most minute examination they came to the decision that the disease was not small-pox. Below we append their statements.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., April 9, '98.

To whom it may concern:

This is to certify that there is not a case of small-pox in Mt. Sterling.

B. W. Smock,

Inspector State Board Kentucky,

Mt. Sterling, Ky., April 9, '98.

This is to certify that I was with

Dr. Smock when case of the supposed small-pox was examined this a. m., and that it is not small-pox.

W. R. THOMPSON,
Health Officer Montgomery County.

This is all there is in the small-pox excitement. There is not a case here and has not been for years.

A New Song.

The following lines on the Maine incident were written by Rev. J. W. Bolin, of this city, and have been set to music by Mr. F. W. H. Peckham, also of this city. There are several songs on this subject already on the market, but this is a "Kentucky song," a "Mt. Sterling song" if you will, and we hope our people will show their appreciation of this fact and give it a rousing reception when it appears. It is now in the hands of publishers:

"CUBA LIBRE."
In the harbor of Havana,
Lies at anchor proud and calm,
A ship sent by the "Eagle"
To the "Land of Cocoon-palm."
From the heights of Mont Carlo
Frown the guns of treacherous Spain;
From the salt breast floats "Old Glory"
It's in the mast-head of the Maine!

CHORUS:
The Flag of a noble nation,
That never betrayed a trust,
Too proud to allow the Spaniards
To trail it in the dust.
Float out on the breeze, "Old Glory,"
Whisper on land or sea;
Each "Star" and each "Stripes" is saying,
Fair Cuba shall be free!
Night has drawn her sable curtain,
Sleep the Sailor without fear,
In their hammocks, swinging, dreaming
Of their wives and sweethearts dear.
In the city of Havana
Treacherous Spaniards vigil keep,
Watching for the Jalias signal
Which shall make a nation weep.

(Chorus)
Sailor boys are sweetly sleeping;
Flashes from the shore a spark,
From the sea fierce flames upheaving
Lie around their faded bark.
To your arms! Heated sailors,
Train your guns on treacherous Spain;
Swirl the chorus, "Cuba Libre!"
With the cry, "Avenge the Maine!"
(Chorus.)

Knights of Pythias Declare for War.

Phoenix Lodge No. 25, K. of P., at Lexington "resolved" on Thursday night. They favor an indemnity for the Maine and her crew, independence of Cuba, and if necessary, to enforce our demands with shot and shell. It tenders to the President and Congress its support, and is willing to go to battle to accomplish their desires.

Lecture.

Go to Somerset next Friday night and hear Pres. Cavo give his lecture on "Robt. E. Lee." Additional interest to this lecture will be greatly increased when it is known that Mrs. Jake Henry of Mt. Sterling will introduce the speaker of the evening. Mr. Joel Feiler will furnish conveyances at a very low price for all who may desire to go. Leave your name with Dr. Harris if you want a conveyance to the lecture.

Remember that nice meats can be had at C. F. Keesee's, on Broadway.

Council Meeting.

The Council met in regular session on Tuesday evening. After the adoption of the minutes of last meeting the committees reported.

Permits were granted to J. E. Peuter to build frame cottage on East Main street; to R. A. Mitchell for a shed on Bank street; to H. C. McKee to lay 4 feet stone crossing on Main street in front of his residence; to Fannie Rogers to build two small houses on Tenny Hill.

The Telephone Company claimed they had a franchise from the city. This claim was contested. The Circuit court decided in favor of the company. The Council appointed H. C. McKee, Tyler & Apperson, Mayor Baird and Councilmen Conroy and Thompson to confer with the Telephone Company and adjust the matter, if possible, without further litigation.

By some means ex-Councilman Wood, Burroughs and Nelson had failed to draw salary for one month. City Attorney was directed to investigate.

City Attorney, Baum and Conroy were empowered to contract for city sprinkling.

Carroll Chensault's application to build stable referred to committee.

Order for special police to look after sanitary regulations and vaccination. Application made for crossing on Locust street at Evergreen Baptist church.

An ordinance was passed requiring laying of several pavements at cost of owners of property.

Death of an Actress.

At Charleston, W. Va., on Thursday afternoon, while playing the cave scene in "Cymbeline," Margaret Mather collapsed and was carried off the stage in an unconscious condition. She soon died.

She was billed for Lexington last night, and had won considerable fame.

Election of Officers.

Watson Lodge No. 32, I. O. O. F., elected last week the following members, who constitute the Board of Macphelah Cemetery Company: J. W. Groves, J. L. Brawner, J. W. Taul, J. P. Games and W. F. Hilber.

Theatrical Season Closed.

With the production of the beautiful play (headed by the eminent singing comedian J. E. Toole) Killarney and the Rhine, at the Opera House on Thursday, April 14, and the delightful opera The Bohemian Girl by the Columbia Opera Company on April 15th, the regular season of the local play house will close, and Mr. O'Connell will retire as manager, after having been connected with this theater for the past four years. As his closing attractions he has secured the above excellent companies, something good, and to make amends for the many "frocky" attractions that he has played. We trust that our people will give him rousing houses.

Thirty-five years make a generation. That is how long Adolph Fisher, of Zanesville, Ohio, suffered from piles. He was cured by using three boxes of DeWitt's Hazel Salve.

Do not fail to hear the eminent singer, J. E. Toole, at Opera House Thursday, April 14.

Mules Wanted.

I have an order for a pair of 48 inch mules. ASA BEAN.

M. L. Youm, Cameron, Pa., says: "I was a sufferer for ten years, trying most all kinds of pile remedies, but without success. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve was recommended to me. I used one box. It has effected a permanent cure." As permanent cure for piles DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has no equal.

One of the good Kansans found in looking over his accounts that he had never sent a church subscription paper to one who had paid 50 cents for it 30 years ago, and he forwarded the sum with interest at 10 per cent. to the man's widow.
